Walcher

Your name of Walcher creates a quick, clever mind capable of grasping and assimilating new ideas. You are rather studious, mentally challenging each new idea before accepting it. Because you learn so quickly you have little patience with those whose mental processes are somewhat slower, and you could become supercilious or somewhat "know it all" in your attitude. This characteristic could make you rather unpopular with your associates. Although you are very knowledgeable and intelligent, you often find spontaneous verbal expression difficult. You crave friendship, understanding, love, and affection but your reserved manner appears forbidding to others. You can give expression to your personal thoughts and feelings most fluently through the written word. You have a sensitive nature--sensitive to your environment and particularly sensitive to how your deeper and more serious interests are regarded by others. Your feelings are very easily hurt and to protect yourself you withdraw within the realms of your own private thoughts and shut out the rest of the world. Moods, which are your worst enemy, result. Your sensitivity and lack of verbal expression frustrate and limit the satisfaction in life to be gained from your responsible and capable nature. Health problems arise due to worry and a sensitivity in the respiratory area which could lead to problems with the heart, lungs, or bronchial organs.

JESUIT FAMILY ALBUM

Walcher Surname Search on Yahoo 3/30/98

Chapter 10 (Su-Z)

(formerly Jesuit Portraits)
Sketches of Chivalry From the Early Society

Not all, but many of these portraits came from a rare century-old work concerning famous Jesuits, Alfred Hamy's Galerie Illustree. The names are arranged alphabetically in ten chapters: A-Be, Bo-Cam, Can-Cos, Cot-Go, Gr-K, L-Me, Mi-Pe, Pi-Ri, Ro-St, Su-Z.

At the end of each entry are listed, in abbreviated form, the specific sources which I used for writing the short sketch for each man. The eleven triliteral symbols (Ban, Bas, DSB, Ham, JLx, McR, JLP, O'M, Som, Tan, Tyl) signify that the information came from the following eleven books which are more fully documented in the Intoduction to Jesuit Portraits.

Ban = Bangert, William, S.J. A History of the Society of Jesus
Bas = Bernard, S.J. The English Jesuits
DSB = Gillispie, Charles. C. Ed., Dictionary of Scientific Biography
Ham = Hamy, Alfred, S.J. Galerie illustree
JLx = Koch, Ludwig, S.J. Jesuiten Lexicon
McR = McRedmond, Louis To the Greater Glory. New York: MacMillan, 1991
JLP = Mertz, James, S.J. and Murphy, John, S.J. Jesuit Latin Poets
O'M = O'Malley, John, S.J. The First Jesuits
Som = Sommervogel, Carolus Bibliothèque de la compagnie de Jésus Tan = Tanner, Mathia, S.J. Societas Jesu.
Tyl = Tylinda, Joseph, S.J. Jesuit Saints and Martyrs

Francis Suarez, S.J. (Spanish: 1548-1617) was one of the great Spanish theologians, and considered supreme among the Jesuit thinkers of his time. He possessed a tremendous breadth of intellectual interest and was unusually insightful when dealing with speculative problems. His entire work runs to 23 volumes. Francis was one of 4,000 Jesuits who volunteered to serve on the China mission.

Francis unintentionally caused an eruption of feeling against French Jesuits with his publication of his Defense of the Catholic Faith meant to contest England's Oath of Allegiance. The book offended the sensibilities of the royalists and a new storm broke over the Society in France and Parliament ordered the volume to be burned and the French Provincial requesting the Italian and Spanish provincials: "I hope that you will put an absolute ban in your provinces on the publication in the future of any similar book." placed gloriously beneath the feet of the successor of St. Peter" The Jesuit General Carafa, uneasy with Anthony's activities, decided that he should leave the Society, while King John IV offered him a Bishopric. Vieira, however, fooled them both and insisted on staying in the Society. King John who considered Vieira *o primeiro homen do mundo*blocked Carafa's plan to expel him. Although Vieira did not leave the Society he did leave Lisbon's court and went to Brazil where he founded missions among the Maranhao and Amazon Indians. In Brazil he occasionally represented King John IV on diplomatic missions. He labored among these Indians and alienated the colonialists by his bitter denunciation of the European slave traders. At his funeral slaves and the poor were his chief mourners. Today the Jesuit school in Bahia is named in his honor. (Ban, Ham, JLx, Som)

Gregory St. Vincent, S.J.(Belgian: 1584-1667) studied mathematics under Christopher Clavius. Gregory was a brilliant mathematician and is looked upon as one of the founders of analytical geometry. He established a famous school of mathematics at Antwerp. Gregory deals with conics, surfaces and solids from a new point of view, employing infinitesimals in a way differing from Cavalieri. Gregory was probably the first to use the word exhaurire in a geometrical sense. From this word arose the name of "method of exhaustion," as applied to the method of Euclid and Archimedes. Gregory used a method of transformation of one conic into another, called per subtendas (by chords), which contains germs of analytic geometry. He created another special method which he called Ductus plani in planum and used in the study of solids. Unlike Archimedes, who kept on dividing distances only until a certain degree of smallness was reached, Gregory permitted the subdivisions to continue ad infinitum and obtained a geometric series that was infinite.

Gregory was the first to apply geometric series to the "Achilles" problem of Zeno (in which the tortouise always wins the race with the swift Achilles since he has an unbeatalbe head start) and to look upon the paradox as a question in the summation of an infinite series. Moreover, Gregory was the first to state the exact time and place of overtaking the tortoise. He spoke of the limit as an obstacle against further advance, similar to a rigid wall. Apparently, he was not troubled by the fact that in his theory the variable does not reach its limit. His exposition of the "Achilles" paradox was favorably received by Leibniz and by other geometers over a century later. (DSB, Ham, JLx, Som)

Joseph Walcher, S.J. (Austria: 1719-1803) taught mathematics, mechanics and hydraulics at the College of Thérésien at the University of Vienna for 17 years. He was also an engineer who is credited with saving the countryside from floods by using the dikes at Lake Rofner-Lise. After the Suppression he was named director of navigation along the Danube and director general of public buildings in Vienna. His 50th anniversary of ordination was commemorated in a magnificent public ceremony by the city. (Ban, Ham, Som)

Stanislaus Warszewicki, S.J. (Polish: 1530-1591) was sent as a papal envoy to Stockholm in 1574 when King John III of Sweden

FREEPORT.

Special Correspondence of The Inter Ocean.]

FREEPORT, Ill., Sept. 6.—The Democrats held their County Convention at Armory Hall last Saturday afternoon, and placed in nomination the following gentlemen: For the Legislature, Hon. E. L. Conkrite; for Clerk of the Circuit Court, Jacob Yeager; for Sheriff, William Steward; for State's Attorney, J. C. Kean, Esq.; for Coroner, Dr. Louis Voight. The delegates who were selected for the Senatorial Convention to be held at Warren, Ill., to-day, go uninstructed. The convention was very poorly attended and the ticket selected is a weak one, and is received with much dissatisfaction by the Democrats.

BRAIDWOOD.

Special Correspondence of The Inter Ocean.]

BRAIDWOOD, Ill., Sept. 4.—The colored Garfield and Arthur club of this city formally opened the campaign last night at their headquarters by a speech delivered by Mr. S. V. Casey, of Springfield, Ill., who spoke for two hours on the political issues of the day to the entire satisfaction of the colored voters of Braidwood, creating great enthusiasm. He made an able defense of the Republican national and State administrations, and, upon the conclusion of his masterly effort, he was tendered a vote of thanks by the club, and was invited by unanimous vote to return and speak again during the campaign.

ELGIN.

Special Telegram to The Inter Ocean.]

ELGIN, Ill., Sept. 6.—Political matters are getting warm here, all the parties here having made their nominations, except the Democrats, who have not yet put up their county ticket.

Governor Cullom will speak here on Friday, and the several Republican campaign clubs will be out to do escort duty. The Governor will have a big crowd to hear him.

On Friday night, Sept. 10, the Hon. E. C. Lovell and O. P. Chisholm will address the Republicans at Plato Center and organize a club. Mr. Chisholm is one of the Republican candidates for the Legislature in this

Description:

This database is an index to individuals who were married in Illinois between 1790 and 1860. A complete list of which counties are included and the years for which there are records represented in this index is provided below. Information that may be found in this database for each individual includes their name, spouse's name, marriage date, location, and source. Marriage records are great sources for genealogists because they document an individual in a particular place and time as well as provide details about that person's marriage.

It is important that you use the information found in this database to locate your ancestor in the original records that this index references. Usually more information is available in the records themselves than is found in an index. For example, marriage records sometimes provide the birth dates and places of the bride and groom, their parents' names, their addresses, and witnesses' names, in addition to the information listed in this index.

Robert Fulton Collapses While At Church Service

Funeral Services For Heart Attack Victim Are Held On Wednesday Afternoon

The funeral of Robert G. Fulton was held Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church in Aurora, with Rev. James B. Brown of the Federated church in charge of the services. Music was furnished by a male quartet. Interment was in Aurora cemetery.

The death of Mr. Fulton came as he was attending the union church service Sunday evening at the Christian church. He collapsed against his son-in-law, Oscar Swedburg, near whom he was sitting. He was removed to the pastor's study in the church, and Dr. J. M. Woodard was called at once, but he found no signs of life. Death had been almost instantaneous.

Mr. Fulton had been troubled with hardening of the arteries, and had used a heart stimulant shortly before he collapsed. He was in Aurora on a visit at the time of his death.

Robert Gamble Fulton was born at Swanwick, Perry county, Illinois, on September 18, 1865, and died at Aurora, Nebr., on Sunday, June 20, 1926, at the age of 60 years, 9 months and 2 days.

He was one of a family of twelve children, six boys and six girls. He was married on September 5, 1888 to Annie R. McKay. To this union were born four children, Harry, James Wilson, Mrs. Blanche Swedburg, all of Aurora, Nebr., and Mrs. Ida Gressley, of Mason City, Nebraska. When the youngest child was six months old the mother died.

He was again married on December 11, 1895 to Nannie A. McDougal, who still survives him. Besides these he leaves three brothers, David Fulton of Swanwick, Ill., William Fulton of St. Louis, Mo., Joseph Fulton of Centralia, Ill., and two sisters, Mrs. Eliza Landgraf of Merissa, Ill., and Mrs. Lettie Smiley of Pinknerville, Ill.

At the age of twelve the deceased united with the U. B. church at Swanwick, Illinois. The family moved to Aurora, Nebr., in the spring of 1902, living in Aurora eight months then moving on a farm. Soon after this he united with the Aurora Presbyterian church, where his membership remained until his death.

In 1918 he moved to Long Beach, California, where he has made his home for most of the time since.

I am not certain as to the status of the family historical data. I have provided the obituary that was in the Topeka Capital Journal on March 9, 2005 which provides names of family members including her two sisters. (I found the obit on line.) Perhaps this will give you a start to your search for family information.

We received an email from Mona Fulton Haney, Jack's cousin recently, saying she had gotten a note from you telling of Bill's death. We are so sorry for your loss.

Mona mentioned you had sent to her a copy of a newspaper article about Bill and she graciously made a copy and sent it to us. What a wonderful article and a very meaningful tribute for the newspaper to do. Although we had never met Bill, after reading the article, one feels that we have known him.

What a wonderful person he was to have pursued the ministry during his life. We are sorry that during our lives we have not met face to face.

Over the years, we have enjoyed the your notes at Christmas time and hope to continue hearing from you.

I am sorry to say the McNeill, Fulton-Hood and Peters-McNeill family research has not be near the top of our lists during the past two years. I did some census work on the family some time ago and need to go over what I have again, then put Jack on the research. He does not enjoy the paperwork, but likes the chase!

This year has been constant trips to one doctor or another. Between having a nicked artery during an angiogram that has taken in regaining my strength, I have not done much. Did complete cardio rehab last week, while at the hospital wellness center three times a week, I did rehab, Jack walked three miles. He is doing well, it has been 9 years since his prostate cancer bout. Since Lyle also had prostate cancer and Jack and Lyle were sure that Howard also had it, he was good to have exams and it was caught early. He had his surgery the same week our last grandson was born.

For so many years after our three children were married, two of them lived in Bartlesville.; however in the last two years all have moved with jobs. After Nancy married she lives on a ranch and teaches special education middle school children. Jean, the oldest and husband began helping manage a independent living retirement center a year ago. They began in Tulsa, then back to Bartlesville for a few months as the co-managers. In September they were promoted and are now managers in Midland Texas. Ken and his family live in Ponca City about 85 miles away. Jean's two sons still live here in Bartlesville and keep us busy with doing for Shane's children. It does not seem possible that they are approaching 30!

Our weather has been quite different for Oklahoma this year, severe ice storms in January and February, the usual tornados in the Spring and the summer not quite as hot as usual—only a few days over 100. Our lovely fall days have been in the 70's and nights in the 40's, my kind of weather. I have said I would love to live where the temperatures are the same all the time.

Again, our sympathy on your loss of Bill, please know you are in our thoughts and prayers at this time.

We look forward to hearing from you as your time permits.

Much Love,

Convinced that he never would be able to support a family as a watchmaker or running a jewelry store in New Jersey, a young Bill Kersting turned his attention to engineering.

But even while he was working for 27 years as a senior engineer at Mack Trucks, Bill's heart was in the ministry, and he made every effort possible to pursue his faith-driven goals.

"Even early on, Bill wanted to be in the ministry," said his wife, Lea.

Bill and Lea met at a friend's Christmas party in 1951 and were married a year later. Bill began his engineering career with Mack in New Jersey, but shortly after signing on, the plant in Hagerstown opened.

The Kersting family, which then included Eileen, 5, and Eric, 2, moved to Washington County and set up housekeeping in a cozy two-story home in Chewsville.

The move was difficult for Lea since both of her parents and Bill's parents still were living in New Jersey when they headed south. Lea, raised Presbyterian, and Bill, a Catholic, chose St. Anne's Episcopal Church in Smithsburg as their new home church.

Bill made his living at Mack as he had planned, but he never stopped studying and preparing himself for the ministry. To that end, he participated in a program developed to nurture people who wanted to explore the Episcopalian priesthood.

"It was also a way to try to keep three small Episcopal churches going," Lea said.

For about 10 years, Bill served as a vicar at one of those churches — St. Anne's. Unpaid for those duties, Bill continued to work at Mack.

More recently, he was an assistant priest at St. Mark's would go fly fishing together.

"We'd talk some. ... He'd explain the different kinds of fish and whether to use dry or wet flies to catch them," Eileen said.

The only time there was any friction between the two was when Eileen would prefer to run around trying to catch insects and her father would fuss at her for making too much noise.

"I'd turn over a rock and he would tell me to be quiet — the fish could feel the vibrations," Eileen said.

Describing his father as "outdoorsy," Eric recalled fishing along the Potomac River with his father.

"He bought me my first fishing pole at the Joe The Motorist's Friend store in the Long Meadow Shopping Center," Eric said.

When he was 8 or 9, Eric caught an 18-inch bass.

"He was as excited as I was, ... maybe more," Eric said.

When Eileen and her mother were going through some of Bill's things, they found many books on fishing and some of the feathers and things he used to make his own flies.

The joys in Bill's life were many and varied. Family, children, his faith, well-kept are captured on film and the smile of delight on Bill's face is evident there, too.

At the end, Bill was unable to speak, though he sometimes could manage a yes or no answer to a question, Eileen said.

"But when the Rev. Anne Weatherholt (rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church) came to see dad, he would pray with her," she said.

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

"It was also a way to try to keep three small Episcopal churches going," Lea said.

For about 10 years, Bill served as a vicar at one of those churches — St. Anne's. Unpaid for those duties, Bill continued to work at Mack.

More recently, he was an assistant priest at St. Mark's Episcopal Church near Boonsboro.

"I had no idea he did all that studying and was working full time, too," said daughter Eileen Almind, who now lives in Effort, Pa., with her husband, Dan, and son, Brett, 12.

Although Eileen and her family took up residence away from Hagerstown, the families enjoyed getting together when they could. And that included young Brett.

"I enjoyed having them around," Brett said, noting that he and his grandfather got along well.

Eileen recalled that many weekends when she was growing up, she and her father would go fly fishing together.

"We'd talk some. ... He'd explain the different kinds of fish and whether to use dry or wet flies to catch them," Eileen said.

The only time there was any friction between the two was when Eileen would prefer to run around trying to catch insects and her father would fuss at her for making too much noise.

"I'd turn over a rock and he would tell me to be quiet — the fish could feel the vibrations," Eileen said.

"He was as excited as I was, ... maybe more," Eric said.

When Eileen and her mother were going through some of Bill's things, they found many books on fishing and some of the feathers and things he used to make his own flies.

The joys in Bill's life were many and varied. Family, children, his faith, well-kept vegetable and flower gardens, and a love of history all held a special place for him.

"Bill had geraniums that he grafted from plants his father had," Lea said. Eric is working to maintain the gardens now that his father has died.

Lea's favorite picture of Bill is the one where he is dressed in his fishing regalia on a trip to a trout-rearing pond with some of his friends in the early 1980s. The smile on his face communicates unabashed delight.

There are other moments, such as when Bill baptized each of his three grandchildren — Brett Almind, and Sarah and Thomas Kersting. Those events are captured on film and the smile of delight on Bill's face is evident there, too.

At the end, Bill was unable to speak, though he sometimes could manage a yes or no answer to a question, Eileen said.

Dear Wenny + Mom,

I guess it's about time I let my relatives know. Bill died of lung cancer July 17. We had Hospice which was a blessing + of course Eileen + Eric + their families were here. Eileen actually spoke at the funeral.

I hope you are both well.

Lea

To: Leslie Good <lesliehgood@yahoo.com>

Leslie, how nice to hear from you. I am assuming that Jeff is no longer interested in the pursuit of the family tree and has "passed the baton" on to you? If this is true, please express my appreciation to him for doing so. Many times people who are no longer interested do not answer. I was so hapy when replied earlier to our correspondence.

My husband, Jack is the grandson of Howard Gordon Fulton, brother of Laura Bell. Jack's father was Lyle Kenney Fulton and the family has lived in the Oklahoma area since Howard and Margaret (Maggie) Kenney Fulton came to Oklahoma in the early '20s. We began genealoy in the 60's and were very lucky that Grandpa Howard (H.G.) and Grandma Maggie gave us wonderful information about the family. However, we have not found many in the family who were interested in the research and have not found much Fulton information.

Jack and I are retired and are now have more time to spend on our "passion." We both are very interested, teach three classes on genealogy at the local technology center in the spring and fall. This year we have decided to concentrate our efforts toward the Fulton and Kenney branches of our tree that is why I recontacted Jeff.

I am attaching a copy of Laura Bell's information, I hope you will update it and send me a copy. AS you can see, I have some information about Jeff, but nothing about his "Aunt Imy's" family. Also attached you will find an Ancestor/Pedigree Charts they will help you know what information we have.

What software program do you use to keep your information? I use Family Tree Maker, but am knowledgeable in several others.

Where do you live, will appreciate having your mailing address also. I will be updating some of the information in the next few months and will share more with you then. Right now working on a family history book for my family.

We look forward to hearing from you...

Your Oklahoma cousins, barb and jack

POETRY: Written by Maggie Josephine Kenney Fulton, after the death of her husband, Howard.
The clock of life is wound by once and no man has the power to tell when the hands will stop at late or early hour,
Now is the only time you own live love work with a will place no faith in tomorrow the clock may then be still.

Dear Howard,
All to myself, I think of you
Think of the things we used to do
Think of the things we used to say
Sometimes I laugh
Sometimes I cry
but I keep each lonely thought all to myself.

OUR CHILDREN
All of our children have left us to live in a home of their own. They don't know how we miss them or how used to them we've grown. Maybe someday they'll have children to fill their hearts with joy--and later wjem tjeu've grown up they'll leave them for a girl or boy, then they'll know the heartaches you feel for many a day when at last you realize that your children have flown away. Historiography

This Coat of Arms was officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Its design is the only one of its kind in existance. The written heraldic discription is worded in the language developed by the heralds as it appears in the records. The first use of a Coat of Arms was for identification on the battlefield. Many times deeds of valor were recorded with a memorable symbol. The fact of the recording of a Coat of Arms means its bearer's surname had its origin at least as far back as medieval times. As not everyone was granted a Coat of Arms, it also means the family name was singled out ages ago to be lifted from conformity and personal extinction. As many people of the same name are unrelated, we have not traced anyone's individual family tree to obtain the information in this report. It should be remembered, however, that many people may be direct descendents of a particular bloodline and be unknown to each other. Although bearers of this old and distinguished family name comprise a small fraction of the population, a surprising number of them have gained world-wide recognition. Space here permits only the listing of a scant few of its famous members, they include:

ROBERT FULTON (1765-1815) American engineer and inventor. He published "A Treatise on The Improvement of Canal Navigation" (1796); invented submarine (1797-1806); was commissioned to build a steamboat (1802) and successfully built the "Clermont" (1807). Congress authorized him to build a steam frigate, launched (1815). He also painted portraits and historic paintings. WILLIAM SAVIN FULTON (1795-1844) Fourth territorial Governor, Arkansas (1835-1836); private secretary to General Andrew Jackson (1818); editor, Florence, Alabama "Gazette", a weekly newspaper (1821). JUSTIN DEWEY FULTON (1828-1901) American Babtist clergyman; ordained (1854); minister, St. Louis (1854-1855), Sandusky, Ohio (1855-1859), Albany, New York (1859-1864), Boston (1864-1873), Somerville, Massachusetts (1894-1901). He edited three religious papers and "Christian in The World" and "Watchtower". He wrote "The True Woman" (1869) and "Rome in America" (1884). DAVID FULTON (b. 1850) French painter, born in Ecosse. He exhibited his paintings in London, Berlin, Munich, and Venice.

As is evident, this family name is a very old and distinguished one. The above is but a mere hint of its illustrious history.

The TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES:
HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: HE LEADETH ME IN THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE..
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF
THE SHADOW OF DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVIL:
FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME. THOU PREPAREST A TABLE
BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL; MY CUP
RUNNETH OVER..SURELY GOODNESS AND MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD FOR EVER.....

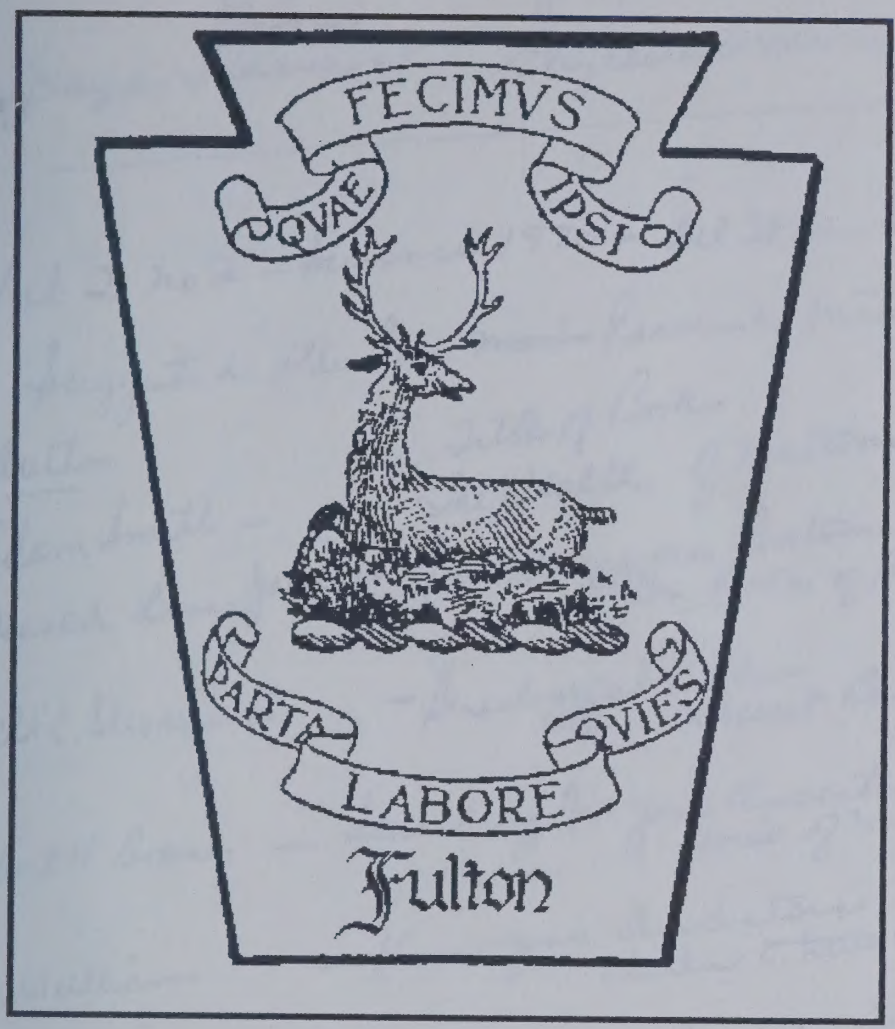
The Fulton Crest



crest 9.

Industrious labor and hard work seem to be characteristics of the Fultons and their crest exemplifies these attributes.

The Stag lodged on a mount regardant, resting, yet watchfully looking around. The legend states, " Things which we ourselves have done", and the motto on the scroll means, "Rest is attained by labor".

The Scotch Fulton Crest has been documented in the book Fairbairn's Crests of the Families of Great Britain and Ireland by James Fairbairn on p. 194 and illustrated on Plate 51,

Dear Friends,

Thanks for sending information about Jack's Fulton ancestors. I just can't see that this Fulton family connects to my wife, Marie's family; unless possibly a connection in Ireland. I am sending a copy of her pedigree; if you see any possible connection, please let me know.

Also, thanks for subscribing to the Fulton Family Letter. I believe that this publication can be of help to any Fulton researcher. Also, the more people that subscribe, the better the possibility that there will be connections. If there could be as many as 200 subscribers, the economics of the mailing would become much more favorable, with the bulk rates for postage. As I communicate with other Fulton researchers, I have been encouraging their participation.

My trip to Oklahoma this past summer was very enjoyable. It brought back many memories for me during our stay there in the 1940's. There have been many changes; but there are many things still very familiar.

Again thanks and best wishes

Dear Friends,

Thanks for sending information about Jack's Fulton ancestors. I just can't see that this Fulton family connects to my wife, Marie's family; unless possibly a connection in Ireland. I am sending a copy of her pedigree; if you see any possible connection, please let me know.

Also, thanks for subscribing to the Fulton Family Letter. I believe that this publication can be of help to any Fulton researcher. Also, the more people that subscribe, the better the possibility that there will be connections. If there could be as many as 200 subscribers, the economics of the mailing would become much more favorable, with the bulk rates for postage. As I communicate with other Fulton researchers, I have been encouraging their participation.

In his first campaign trip to New Hampshire, Bush gave his most pessimistic assessment of the economy yet and said, "I've known the economy is in free fall. I hope I've known it. Maybe I haven't conveyed it as well as I should."

Bush pledged to a domestic effort to end the recession similar to the international effort that a year ago ended the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait.

But then he came out swinging,

Three out of four said Bush should be doing more to turn the economy around. The poll of 1,220 adults by the Times Mirror Center for The People & The Press had a margin of error of plus or minus 2 percentage points.

U.S. District Judge James Ellison on Wednesday overruled a previous recommendation by a federal magistrate that Jimmie Dean Stohler be retried or freed because of legal deficiencies in his conviction and ineffective counsel.

Stohler, 38, was convicted of first-degree murder in 1985 for shooting Michele Rae Powers with a crossbow. He was convicted a year earlier of conspiracy to commit the murder.

Stohler's major claims were that he was convicted of two offenses — murder and conspiracy — that included similar elements. He said that constituted double jeopardy.

He also claimed he was denied ef-

Stohler also claimed he was prosecuted in violation of a plea agreement, and that his confession was tainted by assurances of leniency.

U.S. Magistrate Jeffrey Wolfe recommended Nov. 5 that Stohler receive either a new trial within 120 days or be freed.

Ellison, the chief judge in federal court in Tulsa, conducted a separate hearing on Stohler's appeals and rejected all of them.

He said he found Stohler's witnesses to be earnest, but he did not find their testimony "to be any more credible than the state's witnesses."

...on, Inc.'s hopes for ex... through a Blackwell In...strial Authority loan were dashed Wednesday due to newly-imposed restrictions on use of BIA's revolving fund.

Although forced to deny the request because of new guidelines on Community Development Block Grants, BIA trustees offered the firm help in finding alternative sources of funding. The financial committee will work with Eagle Iron on the matter.

Looking back on the origin of money in BIA's revolving fund, Attorney Dan McClung noted the money first was given the City of Blackwell which, in turn, delegated it to BIA to administer. The fund is subject to audit by the state. Stepping outside the guidelines could result in a heavy penalty for the City.

New state guidelines on CDBG fund use were developed in July and only recently came to the attention of the City and BIA.

Eagle Iron requested a working capital loan of $125,000 for seven years at 3 percent annual interest to be paid the first two years. A second mortgage on land and buildings was offered.

Company owners Adrian Bregnard and Marcus Bates were present Wednesday. Bregnard reported the foundry had 51 employees on Jan. 6. In a responsive market, the firm hoped to operate two shifts by yearend with a work force of 75 to 90 people, hence the need for extra working capital.

He explained the foundry began operations sooner than the owners liked, preferring some down time for maintenance or repair. Kimray's intention to close Dec. 20 and existing customer orders plus the need to retain customers pushed the startup forward.

"We were concerned about growing too quickly and that happened," Bregnard said.

In other action, trustees approved an annual Arkla Gas lease for the gas metering station at 13th and Doolin. The fee was set at $500, the same as last year.

Trustees learned that economic development funds, between $4,500 to $6,000, are available from the Wal-Mart company over a two-year period, offered communities where a Wal-Mart or Sam's store is located.

BIA has an application and will pursue the matter.

Chairman Larry Wyckoff reported the Kay County Economic Development group will meet Jan. 21 to discuss progress in that coalition.

Regarding BIA's participation in a trade zone, guest Bill Rodgers told trustees that since Blackwell did not qualify for trade zone designation, the need is to wor... others who did.

Oklahoma City is currently s... citing businesses to participate in their trade zone. Sub-zone areas are possible, extended to a business site, Rodgers said. Southwest Cupid is particularly interested in being part of a trade zone.

Wyckoff reported a letter from Northwestern Oklahoma State University's Connie Murrell requesting a second "Dollars and Sense" seminar. It was decided to decline since not enough interest was expressed locally in the first one held.

n the industrial park was dis-ussed. Dan McClung, attorney for 3IA, suggested Anderson, who wns Anderson Pipe and Supply, equest an easement variance from he City of Blackwell on property e must cross to gain access to is business.

Early in the meeting, trustees pproved the 1990-91 final audit fter hearing audit details from Joe Smith of Baird, Kurtz and Dobson. Smith said his firm outlined a bet-er method of tracking payments to 3IA and suggested that more than ne person handle financial re-ords to avert the potential for rror.

In the financial report, it was oted that all entities involved with 3IA are current in payments.

City Manager Joe Dickinson, a uest, reported he had contacted he congressional delegation and he governor's office regarding a nove by ConAgra and an "end" consumer in a business venture vhich concerns Blackwell.

Agreements have been worked ut with the "end" consumer who vishes to participate in a Black-vell building lease. Currently, there is a search for other busines-ses to participate in a 15-year lease.

Rodgers told trustees the selec-tion committee had met twice in the search for a new BIA director and looked at other communities to see their economic structures. The committee plans a strong recom-mendation to trustees within the next two weeks, probably in a spe-cial meeting. Members of the com-mittee include Rodgers, chairman; Jim Ross, co-chairman; Carla Sandy, Larry Wyckoff and Eileen Mackey.

Attending Wednesday's meeting were trustees Ken Levings, Mark Cordell, Carla Sandy and Larry Wyckoff; Attorney Dan McClung, BIA secretary Nancy Thompson and guests Bill Rodgers, Joe Dick-inson, Jim Bellah, Joe Smith, Ad-rian Bregnard, Marcus Bates and Joe Smith. Trustee Jon Ihrig was absent.

Blackwell Foundry Bought by Pair

BLACKWELL — Eagle Iron Inc. has purchased the Acme-Blackwell iron foundry that had been closed Dec. 20 and plans to have the foundry back in business by next week.

Adrian L. Bregnard and Marcus P. Bates, both of Bartlesville, purchased the foundry on Tuesday from KimRay Inc. of Oklahoma City. The acquisition included land, buildings and equipment.

KimRay had said it was closing the foundry because of its strain on the parent company's finances.

More than 50 were left without jobs with the closing, but Bregnard said many of them would be rehired.

This township was first settled by Samuel Nisbit from SC. He settled about 1 mile Est of Eden in 1817. Also in 1817 James Huggins came to the township. James Baird came in 1819 about 3 miles south of Sparta. He was from Sc via KY. In 1820 Alexnder Alexander of Chester, SC came to the area. John McMillen settled on Flat Prairie in 1820. 1821 brought Ebenezer Alexander from Chester, SC and James Anderson from Pittsburg, PA.

Sparta was first called Shannon's store. (See below) In 1826 John Armour from PA bought the land that is now Sparta and opened a mill there. Samuel Hill bought the first town lot for $4 in 1829. In 1829 James McClurken moved to town and Lawson Murphy opened a brick yard. 1830 the town added Alexander Campbell (carpenter), Cornhill Ballard (blacksmith), Dr Pyles (teacher) and Dr Joseph Farnan. William H McDill built a hotel in 1832. In 1834, John A Wilson, John Little, John Gray, Thomas Gaston and John W Slade made the new town their home. In 1837, the area was incoperated as the town of Columbus. James McClurken opened a steam grist mill, a saw mill and a cotton gin. He later added a caster oil mill. The Columbus Hearld was est by James Morrow in 1839. Later that same year he sold the paper to John E Detrich who changed the name to Sparta. The town was Spatra was chartered in 1858, John A Wilson was the first Mayor.

Eden is a smal hamlet just west of Sparta on Rt 153. It was est in 1822 by the Rev Samuel Wylie, along with Adam Wylie and James Ford. A church was est there in 1833 before Rev Wylie used homes for his church. In 1837 town lots were sold. 1839 W R Brown opened a wagon shop here.

Shannon's Store was the beginnings of Sparta. A store was opened by Robert G Shannon in 1823, one mile south of present day Sparta. In 1827 he opened a Post Office in the store. As the town of Sparta grew the PO moved there. Mr Shannon moved his store to Sparta in 1840.

Higgin's Fort was located on Rt 4 south of Sparta, about way to Rt 150. This was probably a blockhouse.

Roseborough was located on the Cairo-St Louis RR. It was possibly a flag stop or a station, but the location is unknown. It was thought to be about half way between Sparta and Percy. There was a William Roseborough that settled in the area as early as 1836.

Bethel Cemetery

Located near Eden, just East of Sparta, IL.
This is a VERY old cemetery and many stones are broken, missing, buried or piled at the bottom of the 'hill'. This listing is also incomplete, more will be added as I get it indexed.

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of marriages from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Illinois marriages were not required to be performed in the county of the bride's or groom's residence. If your search does not find a marriage in the county you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index is an on-going project and does not currently include marriage records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties.

Jennifer, I can remember having three children, selling Tupperware, maintaining my house with no family close, and how busy I was. So when life calms down for you--after you get into the new house and get things put where you want them, maybe you will find the boxes and the time to look though you items. You have given me just what I wanted to know ask to who you were descended from. Really what I am hoping to find out is where Wilson and Mary Ann, his sister immigrated from in Ireland.

I have worked on constructing the families and have quite a bit of information and will be happy to share it with you. We are hoping to make a trip sometime this year to Randolph county and on up to Ft. Wayne to do some research in the Ft. Wayne library. Also see some relatives along the way, so you never know...may see you later in the year! Thanks for replying and will let you know when I find something new and exciting!

We are renting a house and will be moving to a permanent home in the next month or two. SOoooooo things are chaotic here. I can't find my family file on my computer and my paper trail is still packed somewhere. But I am a descendant of the Stewarts. We also have Rushings in our line. I haven't looked at things for a long time. After we get settled (may be another 18 years ;) ha!) I will dig for information and share.

> What I am hoping to find is where our Fulton family/children immigrated from in Ireland. We know the surname is Scottish and the Scotch-Irish area of Ireland is Belfast in Ulster. One family reference indicates they came from Belfast. They were also Presbyterian which indicates coming from that area. Would like to find where they came into US and on what ship. Perhaps New Orleans since they are found so close to the Mississippi River.

Our Wilson/Willson was born in Ireland in 1831, so they came to US sometime between Wilson's birth 1831 and the 1850 census. Wilson age 18 and his sister Mary Ann Fulton age 20 (both born Ireland) are in the household of Nancy Williams age 45 in the 1850 Illinois Census, Randolph County, Town 4 So.R 5 West, Dwelling 111.

Nancy Wiliams is listed as a farmer, owning real estage valued at $300, she is also born in Ireland. We are wishing to know if she is Wilson and Mary Ann's mother or were they indentured to her? They both marry right after the census. Wilson marries Mary Ann Hood 31 October 1851 and Mary Ann Fulton marries Joseph Hood 9 December 1850. This might mean they had ended their indenture. Nancy Williams is not found in either one of their households in later years.

Perhaps records in the Randolph county court house concerning the land might give some information regarding Nancy Williams, since she owned land in 1850. What happened to her? Did she remarry? Do not find her in the Randolph County marriage records as marrying in Randolph county. It is Irish tradition that when a woman becomes a widow, she reverts to her maiden name. Could this be the case? She might be Wilson and Mary Ann's mother? If the mother, she would have been 25 when she had Mary Ann, sorta late for first born Irish children. And....other children could have died. If nothing in the land records, are there newspapers existing for that time period?

Mary Ann Fulton and Joseph Hood continue to live in Randolph county. They are listed in the 1870 and 1880 census in Sparta. They had five children, Nancy Jane 1851-1858, William 1856-1901, David L., Martha J., and James W. Mary Ann, Joseph, Nancy Jane and William are all buried in Bethel Cemetery located near Eden, east of Sparta. Have not researched the other children as yet, David L. Martha J. or James W.

Wilson and Mary Ann Hood are found in the Perry County census, 1860 in Grand Cote Twp., 1870 in Coulterville and in 1880 in Grand Cote Twp. Wilson died in 1893 and Mary Ann in 1902, both buried in Swanwick cemetery. Wilson and Mary Ann's obituaries from Perry County newspapers give no hints about their parentage!

Their children who survived were: Rebecca married Enoch Rushing; Nancy Fulton married William Stewart; James Wilson (grandfather) married Margaret Minerva "Minnie" Peters; David married 1. Mary Charlotte Ernest, 2. Anna Justina Guenther; Elizabeth "Eliza" married Fred Landgraf; Lettie Fulton married Robert Smiley; Robert Gamble married 1. Annie McKay, 2. Mannie McDougal; Mary Ann "Anna" married Joseph Luna; Charles W. married Elizabeth "Lizzie" Cunningham; William John married Nellie Alexander. Two other children Martha and Joseph died young.

So this is what we have--also birth, death and marriage dates which we will be happy to share with you. Research in the Randolph County court house is what we are looking for at this point. Please let me know what you think and if and where you fit into this family and what information you have. We very much look forward to hearing from you.

Oh, yes, you are living now in Washington County, IL. I mailed your letter to Tennessee, so glad you received it! How did that happen?
Most sincerely,

Dear Jennifer,

I am writing in regard to information I found on the FamilySearch.org website maintained by The Church of Latter Day Saints.

You have Wilson Fulton listed in your submitted data and Wilson is the great-great grandfather of my husband, Jack. His lineage is: Wilson, James Wilson, Howard Gordon, Lyle K. and Jack.

We have been researching the Fulton family for a number of years and have recently found some information about the family that we will be glad to share, if you are interested.

On the website, you do not have birth or death dates and places, we have that information. Recently we found Wilson, his sister, Mary Ann with a woman Nancy Williams in Randolph County, Illinois census. We are in the process of determining ~~with~~ if she was their mother.

We are wondering if you have additional information that has not been submitted to FamilySearch.org or the Church?

We would like to correspond with you and share our information. We look forward to hearing from you.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF PINCKNEYVILLE - By S. J. Harry Wilson

Advocate-2/9/06

During the first twenty five years of the nineteenth century, pioneers were gradually settling in various parts of what is now Perry County, and when the State Legislature formed the land into a county, the people asked themselves the question "Where shall we locate the seat?". As no community near the borders of the county could claim that itwas the center of influence for the county, the people naturally decided that the county seat should be placed somewhere near the geographical center. So, under Gov Ninan Edwards, the Fifth General assembly of the state, held at Vandalia, from December 4, 1826, to February 19, 1827, in the sameact in which Perry County was created (section 2) appointed three commissioners to select a "permanent seat of justice" for the county. Those commissioners were Edward Humphrey and Samuel Crawford, of Randolph county, and Singleton Kimmel of Jackson County. They were to meet on or before the first Monday in April 1827, at the home of Amos Anderson, two and one-half miles east of the present site of Pinckneyville on what is now the Duquoin road, to makethe necessary arrangements for locating the county.seat. The legislature further provided that twenty acres of the land so selected for the site should be given to the county by one owning; same; and that these twenty acres should be laid off into town lots and sold at auctionby the county commissioners, and the money from the sales be used in erecting the necessary public building for the county. The last reference the legislature made to this site is: "the county seat when so established shall be called Pinckneyville." It gets its name form Charles Cotesworth Pinckneyv\ of South Carolina. It was he who said to the French, "Millions for defence, but not one cent for tribute." He had just died in 1825 and the rememberance of him was still fresh in the mids of the piople, and especially in the minds of southern people and they composed the majority of the settlers in 1827.

on the NW quarter of section 25, and opened a blacksmith and wagon making shop, which they operated in connection with farming. Their shop was well patronized in these pioneer days. The first store in this locality was a small grocery store opened by James C. Steel, son of John Steel of Four Mile Prairie, who had recently been sheriff of Perry County. Grand Cote post office was established at his store about 1845. The store was located in SW quarter of NW quarter of section 22. Said J. C. Steel enlisted as a volunteer to go to the Mexican War in the spring of 1846, and his stone and postoffice was turned over to Samuel Huey.

Skipping about twenty five years, which include the period of oru Civil War during which period the citizens engaged in farming, there came a change in 1870 when the Cairo Short Line RR was graded during the summer and late in the fall, the track was laid. Trains began running about Christmas. The railroad ran from Belleville in St. Clair county to Duquoin in Perry County. In the spring of 1871 our village was surveyed and platted, our depot built and several dwelling houses erected. Messrs. William and Peter Beauman of New Athens, opened a dry goods and grocery store, with Wenzel Soukup as clerk. About 1872 R. G. Williams of Pinckneyville, and Enoch D. Rushing opened another store. It was burned later, the first and only fire we have had in Swanwick. Without attempting to give a history of the changes in firms, let it suffice to say, that we have two general stores at present, 1906, doing a very fair business. Mr John L. Kenney as a good store, and employs two clerks beside his own labor, He buys railroad ties and mine props, the other store is owned by ~~George~~ Gustave Halb. It is also a general store, and does a good business. Two of his sons are clerks. He buys mine props but not railroad ties. The two firms ship many car loads of mine props from our station. Soon after our village began business, James Armour opened a blacksmith shop, which he

OBITUARY: DEATH OF J.W. FULTON

Many Aurora people had known Mr. James W. Fulton had been ailing of late, but was not known until the close of last week how serious was his condition and that prospects for his recovery were very doubtful. Mr. Fulton had been afflicted with a very large carbuncle on his body and, in spite of the efforts of physicians, the painful malady grew more aggravated until a few days before his death blood poison set in. From that time until the fusserer passed away on Sunday afternoon the fight for life was hope less one. While his acquaintance was not as extensive, perhaps, as that of his brothers, he had acquired very good friends, who join with the relatives in sharing the sorrow occasioned by his departure. James Wilson Fulton was born at Swanwick, Illinois, January 22, 1857, and died at Aurora, Nebr., October 31, 1915, aged 58 years, 9 months and days. December 1st, 1880, he was married to Miss Margaret Peters of Swanwick. To them was born five children, all of whom survive the parents. The children are as follows: Howard of Aurora; Mrs. Myrtle McClelland of Kansas City, Mo; Mrs. Laurie Morris of Thompsonville, Ill.; Favorite of Aurora; and Letty of Kansas City. Mr. Fulton's death was unexpected until within a few days of the time when it occurred. Ailing for only a few short weeks and then gone--a sorrowful reminder "That in the midst of life we are in death." A part of Mr. Fulton's life was spent in St. Louis, where he was a member of the Forester's Lodge and also the Emanuel Presbyterian Church. The remains were taken Tuesday morning to Swanwick, Illinois, where they will be laid beside those of his wife who died some three years ago. Brief services were held at the Aurora residence at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning with Rev. J.H. Salsbury, D.D., pastor of the Presbyterian Church, being in charge.

Tombstones in Swanwick Cemetery are found by entering the main entrance, 8th row on Right on the Main Road (south of the flagpole) (about 3/4 way down the row).

Brown of the Federated church in charge of the services. Music was furnished by a male quartet. Interment was in Aurora cemetery. The death of Mr. Fulton came as he was attending the Union Church service Sunday evening at the Christian Church. He collapsed against his son-in-law, Oscar Swedburg, near whom he was sitting. He was removed to the pastor's study in the church, and Dr. J.M. Woodard was called at once, but he found no signs of life. Death had been almost instantaneous. Mr. Fulton had been troubled with hardening of the arteries, and had used a heart stimulant shortly before he collapsed. He was in Aurora on a visit at the time of his death. Robert Gamble Fulton was born at Swanwick, Perry County, Illinois, on September 18, 1865, and died at Aurora, Nebr., on Sunday, June 20, 1926, at the age of 60 years, 9 months and 2 days. To this union were born four children, Harry, James Wilson, Mrs. Blanche Swedburg, all of Aurora, Nebr., and Mrs. Ida Gressley, of Mason City, Nebraska. When the youngest child was six months old the mother died. He was again married on December 11, 1895, to Nannie A. McDougal, who still survives him. Besides these he leave three brothers, David Fulton of Swanwick, Ill., William Fulton of St. Louis, Mo., Joseph Fulton of Centralia, Ill., and two sisters, Mrs. Eliza Landgraf of Marissa, Ill., and Mrs. Lettie Smiley of Pickneyville, Ill. At the age of twelve, the deceased united with the U.P. Church at Swanwick, Illinois. The family moved to Aurora, Nebraska, in the spring of 1902, living in Aurora eight months then moving on a farm. Soon after this he united with the Aurora Presbyterian Church, where his membership remained until his death. In 1918 he moved to Long Beach, California, where he has made his home for most of the time since.
